SEYMOUR MUNRO. Born 1723 Died 1810. married=1760= Rev Robert Munro of Kilmuir Wester who lies buried hard by the Sepulchre of the [illegible] of Foulis in Kiltearn Churchyard. she was the sister of Simon Munro 1741-1790 my great-great grandfather.

CHRISTIANA HAMILTON(Born? Died 1703) was the great-great-great-great grand mother of the Late Sir.Hector Munro XXIX Baron of Foulis and of Sir George Hamilton Munro XXX and present Baronet.

LADY MUNRO of "NEWMORE" was a very pious woman, and was, a sincere friend of the Coven-anters and ejected ministers, and a consistent opponent of the Episcopal hierarchy. Her fidelity to the principles of the Covenant does honour both to her firmness and discretion, for Sir.George Munro of "Newmore", unlike his kinsman Sir.John Munro of "Fowles" (his Nephew.Sir John Munro XXII Baron of "Fowles" son of Sir.Robert Munro XXI.Baron of "Fowles" and brother of Sir.George Munro I of "Newmore") was a steady if not disinterested supporter of the Government and its policy.She was on friendly terms with Brodie of Brodie, and a frequent visitor at Brodie Castle.She was there on the 4th of November 1676:-"The Lady Newmore visited.She said she was glad to see me, and in some respect sorry that I was oft cast up to her and my Lady Rothes, because we heard ,I said every one has their measure, all see not alike clearly, some are under a cloud in things that others are clear in.She said she dared not hear unless she marred her own peace and she had peace in not hearing (the curates); and she hoped it should not be worse with her husband of that.She had apprehension of much trouble when she resolved first against hearing; but she thanked God who had carried her through.She told me that was a warrant to transport Mr.Thomas Ross and Mr.John MacCillican, and she was much affected with it" Her next recorded visit was on the 12th of June 1677-"Sir.George Munro his Lady in her south going dined with me.I observed the Lord's kindness to her in ordering a tolerable life to her with her husband" The last two words are in shorthand in Brodie's "MS". They are, moreover, illegible, but the context indicates that her husband is meant.She is again at Bro-die Castle on the 7th.September following, on her "north going"-"The Lady Newmore came in the evening, but would not stay, having sent before her to Lethen.She told me she had some hope of Mr.J. MacCillican's release, but none as yet of Mr.Hogg's; that there was appearance of the M.of Athol's son's marriage might go back yet with the Duchess's daughter: no appearance of indulgence, popery spreading divisions in our state: that she had got her desire in enjoying the blessing of the gospel since she went south, and it was death to be deprived of it: that there was much thirsting of the Word amongst them, Mr.Welch his communions and others" (Brodie of Brodie's Diary)

Lady Munro survived her husband, and resided in Newmore Castle the ruins of which still stand.She died at the beginning of the last Century,and is buried within the Newmore Chapel,in the Churchyard of Roskeen. (From the History of the Munros by Alexander Mackenzie. Inverness 1898.under the Munros of"Newmore" pages 193-194-195)

ANN GRAHAM.daughter of James Graham of Edderton."THE LADY OF DAAN"

"Was a woman in comparitively humble circumstances.a beautiful woman,the daughter of James Graham of"Edderton" and wife of JAMES MUNRO IV.of"CULRAIN" (the great-gre -grandparents of the Late Sir.Hector Munro XXIX.Baron of"Fowles" and Eleventh Baro -net of Nova Scotia" 1848-1936,and of the present Sir.George Hamilton Munro XXX Baron of"Fowles" and Twelfth Baronet of Nova Scotia.1864-) the marriage so highly incensed his two elder brothers:(Viz.George Munro II of"Culrain" Died 1731 and Gustavus Munro III,Died 1751.both of whom died without issue) both living at the time,that they resolved upon speerating them,and to this end they forcibly carried her away privately during the night,and got her sent across to America,to the then penal English settlement of New York,where she remained for many years,he: whereabouts being kept entirely secret from her husband,who was much attached to her,and still resided on his farm of"Daan".The treatment which she received natura -ly displeased her relations,and they ultimately applied to the head of their fam- ily,Graham of Drynie,in the Black Isle,to call the Munros to account for their conduct towards their relative,with the result that the charges made against them were investigated.The usual means were taken in America to obtain information re- garding the missing owman,and one of the notices circulated happened to come unde: the eyes of the gentleman in whose employment the Lady of Daan at that time was, He was already aware that she belonged to the North of Scotland,and naturally aske her if she knew anything about the person enquired about.She replied that she did, and that she was herself the lady in question.Communication with her husband was at once entered upon.He thereupon petetioned Parliament to have his wife returned to him,with the result,it is said that a man-of-war was ordered to New York to bring her home;in due time the ship returned,and arrived in the Cromarty Firth, where the heartlessly exiled Mrs.Munro was safely landed at Ballintraid,and joyful -y welcomed by her devoted husband,after which they lived happily together for man years" From "History of the Munros.by Alexander Mackenzie. Shortly after their marriage Sir Hugh Munro and his wife took up their residence at"Fowles Castle".She did not,however,long survive, having met her death on the 3rd of August,1803,in the 27th year of her age,through an unfortunate accident The"SCOTS MAGAZINE" for September 1803,gives the following account of the unfortunate occurrence:-

"Her Ladyship,with her own maid,and two other women-servants,went to bathe in her usual place in the Bay of Cromarty(at Fowlis Point) close by Fowlis Castle .It appears that they went most unfortunately beyond their depth,and though their cries brought them assistance by a boat the four were apparently drowned before the assistance arrived.No time was lost in procuring medical aid,and one of the attendants was with difficulty revived.Every effort to restore Lady Munro and her other two attendents proved ineffectual"

Such was the sad fate of this lady.She is desceribed as a most beautiful woman, adorned with every accomplishment and attainment,and her untimely death was lamen-ted by all her friends.Her remains were interred in the Churchyard of Kiltearn.

By her Sir Hugh Munro left issue,an only daughter.

MARY SEYMOUR MUNRO,born in London on the 14th of May 1796.Her education was con

"-ducted by the Countess of St.Aubin,a French lady of high rank,and by Dr.Gordon, the well-known Principal of the Scotch College at Paris. A great lawsuit to test the legitimacy of her birth and her right of succession to the estates,in which she was ultimately successful,was raised and continued for several years.

Naturally enough doubts were entertained in many quarters regarding the legitimacy of Mary Seymour Munro,in view of the facts and circumstances just stated,especially among those whose rights of succession to the estates of Fowlis would be ser-iously imperilled,should her legitimate birth be established.The Baronetcy,which in the absence of heirs male by Sir.Hugh,would go to George Munro of"Culrain",now that the male line of Culcairn had become extinct,was not in question,but if the effect of the marriage of her parents,after her birth in England,should be to legitimatise the daughter Mary Seymou Munro,the title and estates would be seper-ated,the Baronetcy going to George Munro of "Culrain" or his heirs ,while the lands of Fowlis in terms of Sir.Harry Munro's entail,(her grandfather Died 1781) would go to Sir.Hugh's daughter.This was a serious matter to the Culrains,for if Mary Seymour Munro should marry and leave issue the seperation of the title and estates would be complete,(Which came to pass in 1936.R.M.E.) leaving the head of the house of Fowlis and Chief of the Clan practically landless.(which the Present Chief of the Clan Munro.Sir George Hamilton Munro,now is.R.M.E.) It can therefore be readily believed that interested persons were spreading reports to the effect that Mary Seymour Munro was not of legitimate birth,and that the marr-iage of her father and mother several years after her birth in England could not have the same effect as a similar marriage in like circumstances in Scotland would admittedly have had in legitimatizing the birth of children previously born out of wedlock.

It therefore became neccessary,If Sir.Hugh's daughter born out of wedlock in England,was to succeed him in the Fowlis estates,that steps should be taken to establish her ligitimacy,and it was naturally felt by herself and friends that this could be done much easier during the life and with the concurrence and assistance of her father than after his death.

For this purpose a summons of declarator and legitimacy in the Court of Session was issued on the 27th of May 1831,at the instance of the lady herself,Mary

" Seymour Munro,described as the daughter and only lawful child of Sir.Hugh Munro of"Fowlis"Baronet,and of the now deceased Dame Jane Law Munro,his spouse,against the said Sir.Hugh Munro her father,George Munro"late of"Culrain",presently resid-ing in London,or elsewhere furth of Scotland.Charles and John,his sons,also residing in London"and John,Colin,and other sons of Charles Munro and George Frederick.grandsons of the said George Munro,late of"Culrain",and all those who had a right to succeed her father Sir.Hugh Munro,as next heir of entail and his only lawful child"notwithstanding whereof certain persons,interested by themselves or their kindred,or connexions in the succession to the said estate,have maliciously and unjustifiably spread reports tending to that effect,injure or destroy the"jus crediti" and vested right of succession competent to the pursuer in virtue of the destination and clauses and limitations,prohibitory,irritant, and resolutive contained in the said entail and by falsely and calumniously deny-ing the right and title of the pursuer to said estate,in the character of lawful daughter and only child in life of said Sir Hugh Munro of Fowlis or otherwise"and prays the Court that "it ought and should be found,declared and descerned by our said Lords,that the deceased Dame Jane Law,the mother of the pursuer,was the lawful wife of the said Sir.Hugh Munro,defender;that she cohabited with him as such during several years,residing with her said husband at his heriditary mansion-house of Fowlis,in the County of Ross,in Scotland, where she was fully acknowledged by him and by the whole neighborhood,and by all their friends and acquaintances and visitors,as holding lawfully the style and title of Lady Munro,and was in all respects,habit and repute,the wife of the defender,the said Sir.Hugh Munro,the father of the pursuer,who was reared brough up,and acknowledged and educated by him and his said wife as their lawful child and presented as such to all their friends,relations,and connections,and held out in that character to the public at large" and further,it should be declared that she,as the daughter and only lawful child of her father Sir Hugh,failing him,and any heirs male of his body,is entitled to succeed to the estates of Fowlis and others,in virtue of the clause of destination and other clauses in the entail,and that all the defenders being the other substitutes in the "same deed should be prohibited, interdicted, put to silence and forbidden in all time coming, to dispose or deny judically or extra-judically her legal right of succession as the only lawful child of her father.

Defences were duly lodged, and as a matter of course Sir Hugh, nominally one of the defendents, but the lady's father and the real pursuer himself "admits the truth of the statements contained in the libel and the inferences deducted from them" and that its conclusions were well founded. He then proceeds with a long narrative, admitting that his daughter was born five years before he married her mother, and detailing many of the facts and circumstances connected with their unmarried and married life in London, but maintaining that he never gave up his Scottish Domicile, and that consequently his marriage to the mother after the birth of the daughter, although in England, had the same effect in legalizing her birth as if they had resided all the time in Scotland. where that would be the unquestioned result of the Scottish marriage laws.

Nor was the slightest doubt cast upon his daughter's legitimacy, he goes on to say "until 1816 when the next heir of entail, Mr. Munro of "CULCAIRN", to the amazement of the defender, ventured to propagate a most malicious report that the pursuerr is not the lawful daughter of the defender. The unworthy motives of Culcairn did not permit him to discriminate as to the effect of legitimation ex subsequente matrimonio". His Calumny had for its object to cast into doubt the paternity of the pursuer, for which most scandulous imputation he never was able to assign the slightest reason; and, in truth, he made no defence of the infamous charge invented by him, when he was regularly challenged for it in a court of law. His conduct occaisioned in the year 1816, the institution of an action against him before the Comissaries of Edinburgh, at the instance of the present pursuer "The conclusion of the summons in that action against Duncan Munro of Culcairn was-inas much as the complainer, Mary Seymour Munro, was legitimated by the marriage which took place after her birth between her father and mother and that she had always been held and reputed to be a lawful daughter of the said marriage, "Therefore it ought and should be found and declared by your decreet and sentence that the complainer is the lawful child of the said Sir. Hugh Munro, Baronet, and that, as such she has right to succeed to her said father and other relations,in their heritable and moveable subjects"and that the defender should be found liable in damages for one thousand pounds to the complainer and in the expenses of the action.The proceedings were continued and carried on,more or less actively for four years,the last notice of this action on the records being an interlocutor,dated the 22nd of December 1820,in these terms:-

"The Commissaries having considered the memorials and additional memorials for the parties,and resumed consideration of the whole process:In respect the parties are still at variance in regard to several important facts of the case,before further advising,appoint the pursuers"-that is Sir Hugh and his daughter-"to state in a special and articulate condescendence,the facts and grounds on which they maintai that the true and proper domicile of Sir.Hugh Munro,both at the date of his alleg ed marriage in England,and subsequently thereto till the dissolution by the death of Lady Munro,was in Scotland.Further,therein to state the precise date of the first acquaintance of Sir.Hugh Munro with the deceased Lady Munro,the date of the alleged marriage in England,and also the date of the pursuer,Miss Munro's birth"

Duncan Munro of"Culcairn" died in the year 1820,and no more is heard of any procee -ings until an action is raised against George Munro of"CULRAIN" and the other hei -s male of entail,eleven years later,on the 27th of May 1831,although Duncan Munro of Culcairn's son survived until 1821.

The Lord Ordinary,on the 12th of May 1835,ordered thetCulrain case to be reported to the first Division of the Court.On the 12th of January 1836,the Division took the neccessary preliminary steps "for obtaining the opinions of the Second Divisio and of the Permanent Lords Ordinary" on the questions argues and to be further argued in the case;and on the 2nd of July following the First Division pronounced the following interlocutor:-

"The Lords having considered the original cases,and additioned revised cases in this cause,direct the same to be laid before the Lords of the Second Division,and the Lords Ordinary,in order that they may furnish the first Division with their opinion in writing,whether the pursuer is the legitimate daughter of Sir.Hugh Munro of Fowlis."

On the 15th of November 1837,opinions having been returned in terms of the former interlocutor of the First Division,that Court pronounced the following judgement against Mary Seymour Munro's claim to be the legitimate daughter of her father Sir Hugh Munro:-

"The Lords of the First Division resumed consideration of the pleadings,and whole procedure in the case,and heard counsel and having also considered the opinions of the consulted judges,in consequence thereof,sustain the defences,assuilize,the defenders from the conclusions of the actions,and descern;and find no expenses du either party"

This judgement of the Court of Session was at once appealed to the House of Lords by whom it was reversed in 1840, on the ground that Sir. Hugh Munro, the pursuer's father, never lost his Scottish Domicile, and therefore his marriage to the mother after the birth of the daughter, although performed in England, as if celebrated in Scotland, where the after marriage of the parents admittedly legalizes the birth of the children previously born out of wedlock.

Miss. Munro, on her father's death in 1848, intended to have taken up her permanent residemce at Fowlis Castle, but before she was able to carry her purpose into effect she was removed by death, having died unmarried on the 12th of January 1849, in the fifty-third year of her age at her temporary residence Perry-Hill, Sydenham, County of Kent, and was interred at Norwood, having only survived her father by eight months.

The Late Mr. Joseph Mitchell, C.E. Inverness, says that Sir. Hugh during the course of these litigations "finding he could not disentail his property gave orders for dismantling it. The furniture of the Castle was sold, and all the beautiful timber around the Castle and throughout the estates was cutndown, and the lands as well as the duties of the proprietor were left for many years to the administration of factors"

Referring to Fowlis Castle he says about 1880-

"It presents no special architectural features, but is beautifully situated and striling for it size, the country people alleging that it had a window for every day in the year. Although in tolerable repair, it is now dismantled and shorn of the magnificent woods which surrounded it. I recollect spending a week when a boy at "Ardullie" the jointure House built for the Dowager Lady Munro of Fowlis, then inhabited by Captain Sutherland, when my companion and I roamed through the whole demesne and woods of the estate. The trees around this ancient seat were of great age and magnificent size. Nature seemed to have planted them in most picturesque grouping. One chestnut of vast dimensions in front of Ardullie House, would it was said, when in full foliage, shelter 1.000 men under its branches" and he adds that "Although for some twenty years after 1824 the axe was in constant use, and much of the beautiful old timber was swept away both at "Brahan" and Fowlis, still the country looked clothed. Succeeding generations, however will lose the charm which groups of antique and venerable trees afforded to the lover of the picturesque in this locality"

"This vandalism was described in detail and sworn to in course of the action against Munro of "CULPAIN" in the Court of Session already referred to. The same writer adds that Miss Munro's victory, after such a lengthened contest, was a barren one; "for she found her estate dismantled of its beauties and even in that condition she did not long enjoy it" The litigation to preserve his rights involved

"Sir.Charles Munro and his father George Munro of"CULRAIN""in very heavy pecuniary obligations.money was raised at a great sacrifice.These obligations were ultimate-ly settled by Sir.Charles and his son DISENTAILING THE ESTATE UNDER THE DUTHERFOI ACT,and selling such portions of the property as liquidated the debts.

Sir Hugh had a natural son,George Munro,to whom his sister Mary Seymour Munro bequeathed the property of"MILNTOWN"He, on his death left it in trust to the corpo-ation of Perth.who obtained authority from Parliament to sell it,to William Mathe-son,farmer of Newton,parish of Kiltearn,for the sum of seven thousand pounds. Mr.Matheson a few years ago sold "MILNTOWN" to Major Jackson of Swordale.It pays a feu duty of four pounds ten shillings to Sir.Hector Munro of Fowlis,the superior of the lands.George on his death was interred in the same grave as his half-sister Mary Seymour Munro.NEARLY ALL THE FAMILY PAPERS AND SIR HARRY'S VALUABLE MANUSCRI-TS WERE REMOVED BY THIS GEORGE MUNRO TO HIS SISTER'S RESIDENCE AT PERRY-HILL,SYDE-HAM,AND WERE THERE WANTONLY DESTROYED.

Sir.Hugh lived for many years at his town residence 22 Manchester Square,London where he died on the 2nd of May 1848.at the advanced age of 85.His remains were brought to Ross-Shire,and interred at Kiltearn in the family burying-ground of his Ancestors."

MY NOTE ROBERT MUNRO-ERWIN 1947.

The above is taken from The"HISTORY OF THE MUNROS OF FOWLIS" by ALEXANDER MACKEN-ZIE.Pages 146 to 154. published at Inverness in 1898.

During the years 1915-1916-1917. I had the pleasure and honour of spending many happy days at "Fowlis Castle" with the late Sir.Hector Munro.(1848-1936) the Twenty-Ninth Baron,whose grandfather Sir.Charles Munro (VII of"CULRAIN" 1795-1886 son of Sir.George Munro VI of"Culrain" also mentioned in the above article) inher-ited the Baronetcy,in 1848.and the Castle and estates upon the death of Mary Seymour Munro in 1849.and his version to me of the story of the dismantling of the Castle.the wanton destruction of all family papers and Portraits.does not exactly agree with the version as quoted by Alexander Mackenzie.

Sir.Hector told me.that Mary Seymour Munro (and Sir.Hector was born the year before Mary Seymour Munro died) on one of her visits to Fowlis Castle(which she had inherited on the death of her father Sir.Hugh Munro) between the time of his death and her own death eight months later.had all the old furniture.some of it centuries old.that had been saved when the old Castle of Fowlis was burned about 1738.(the present Castle of Fowlis was built about 1742.by Sir.Robert Munro the XXIV Baron and Fifth Baronet of Nova Scotia.Died 1746)of the old Castle nothing remains except the old"Tower of"Fowlis"(or"Foulis) built in the twelfth Century. and that Mary Seymour Munro had all the above mentioned furniture burned,together with many old family Portraits.I think that went back to the time of the above mentioned time of Sir.Robert Munro the XXIV.Baron.1648-1746. so that the family of"CULRAIN" who were the next heirs, in the male line would not have them.every -thing else.the family silver.etc,she carried off to London,and it is believed that her illegitimate half-brother George Munro inherited them.there is nothing left at Fowlis Castle at all,with the exception of one Silver Bowl that had belon -ed to Sir.Robert Munro the XXIV.Baron,which was found I believe in the Town of Dingwall.some forty years ago and presented by the people of the Town to the Late Sir.Hector Munro.when he was Lord-Lieutenant of Ross.He was greatly loved by everyone throughout the County of Ross Cromarty and Inverness.and although thirty years have passed I look back upon my visits at Fowlis Castle with Sir.Hector and Lady Munro as one of the most beautiful memories of my life.

I attended the"Coming of age of his only son.Charles Hector Seymour Munro at Fowles Castle in 1915.a fine strapping lad and the light of his father's eye "Master of Fowles"and only direct heir to the Baronetcy,three years later he was killed in action in world war one.only three weeks before the armistice and unmarried, in the twenty-fourth year of his age.a blow from which Sir. Hector never recovered. his body was not recovered and he lies slain in battle as was his ancestor George Munro (who also never attained the Baronetcy) on the field of Bannockburn in 1324.

To the amazement of everyone (and to no one more than myself) at his death in 1936 at the age of 87.Sir Hector Munro entailed the Castle and estates, in the female and NOT in the Male Line.so for the first time in 900 years the title and Estates were seperated,although all down through the line of almost thirty Generations every"Chief of the CLAN MUNRO" had by every le al act possible sought to avoid such an occurrence,and his first Cousin.George Hamilton Munro.(Born 1864) the son of Harry Munro.brother of Sir.Hector Munro's father the late SIR CHARLES MUNRO.XXVIII BARON OF FOWLIS.and TENTH BARONET OF NOVA SCOTIA.(1824-1888) became the CHIEF OF THE CLAN MUNRO,(although the Late Sir.Hector's Grandson his daughter's son.assumes that Title,to which he has no right.By Scottish Law he may not inherit the title of Baron of Fowlis,or Baronet of Nova Scotia) and XXXX BARON of"FOWLIS.and TWELFTH BARONET OF NOVA SCOTIA.a man who occupies a very humble position in life as a Public Accountant in London.and whose heir,isihis Nephew(he being childless) should Sir.George Hamilton Munro's brother not survive (Arthur Talbot Munro Born 1866) Arthur Herman Munro Born 1893.and has issue.HECTOR CHARLES SEYMOUR MUNRO Born 1923 (named presumably for his father's second Cousin the Late Sir Hector Munro's son Charles Hector Seymour Munro.who as I have stated above was killed in action in the first world war)

During my last visit to Sir.Hector Munro at Fowles Castle in 1929.one lovely spring morning as we were returning from Fowlis Point,on Cromarty Firth where Sir Hector had takem me to show me the spot where Lady Munro.(Jane Law) the wife of Sir.Hugh Munro the XXVI Baronet was drowned in 1803,as we were walking accross the fields.I turned to Sir.Hector and said:Well I suppose when I next return to "Fowlis" it will be to visit the next heir who ever he is,is he not a descendent of your Uncle who lives in Australia?"Sir Hector was gaily whistling through his teeth as he was so often won't to do,and he started to say something,then cut him -self short and just said"I suppose so,I suppose so" perhaps he was then going to tell me of the entail he had in mind.(and had he done so I would have expressed myself most vociferously.as a descendent of the Munros of"Fowlis" myself) we had in the years gone by ten years before that been most friendly,and he often had confided to me many little anecdotes in connection with his sons life.my last visit was the first (and the last time I saw him) since the loss of his son,and I noted a great change in him,His sons death had been a fatal blow to him and Lady Munro had asked me not to mention it any more than was neccessary.His two younger brothers Sir.Charles Frederick Munro.and Sir.George Montgomery Munro had both predeceased him without issue.and for some reason unknown to me.his own first Cousins,were never dear to him,could not have been,as if they had been he would have adopted them as his direct male heirs,as he outlived his son almost twenty years.and would have at least obtained a superior education for the son of his first Cousin who was after Sir.Hector's sons death the heir-Presumptive to the Baronetcy,which is the eldest in the United Kingdom,save that of Lord Kinsale in Ireland.(who is the XXXV Baron Kinsale) He entailed the estates to his grandson.the son of his daughter Eva Marion(Munro (born 1881) married in 1911. Hugh Cecil Orby'GASCOIGNE(she being his eldest daughter,and eldest child) the scion of an old French Family of the"bourgeoise" but not Nobles.and their son Patrick Munro Gascoigne (Born 1912) by letters Patent changed his name under the entail of Sir.Hector Munro to Patrick Gascoigne Munro.and assumed the Arms of the House of "Munro of Fowlis" and now possesses the Castle and Estates.He in 1946.married Eleanor French. the daughter of Capt.The Hon.William French of"Crogham"House" Boyle County Roscommon,Ireland.the daughter of an old Catholic Family.and it is supposed that the future Lairds of"FOWLIS" will be Catholics.and will have returned to the Antient Faith of their Fathers.(there has been no Catholic Baron of Fowlis since. SIR ROBERT MUNRO XIV.BARON KILLED at the Battle of"Pinkie" in 1547.his Son.SIR.ROBERT MUNRO XV.BARON of FOWLIS. (Died 1558) adopted the Heretical Faith.as The MUNROS.were among the first of the Scottish Nobles to become converted to the Reformed Faith.The late SIR. HECTOR was"ABSOLUTE" in his"PROTESTANTISM" and LADY MUNRO NO LESS SO. she did not attend her grandsons wedding,but as a true bigoted Scot,of the Covenenter type took to her bed at this last blow.and died a few weeks later in her Ninetiet Year.she was a nice soul and a kindly soul.(but never spent a penny if she could help it) the daughter of Sir.John Stirling of"Fairburn"

Thus passes into History the Munros Barons of Fowlis.of Fowlis Castle,unless God God in his infinite providence,should restore them in due time to their rightful residence which has been theirs through NINE CENTURIES!

THE ENTAIL OF SIR.HARRY MUNRO XXV BARON OF"FOWLIS" AND VII BARONET of NOVA SCOTIA
(Born ? DIED 1781)

"On the 28th of June 1776,Sir Harry Munro entailed all his estates by a deed sign -ed at"ARDULLIE" on that date,and as this entail,which was in favour of certain female as well as certain male heirs,and therefore responsible for much litigatio and expenditure at a later period in the history of the family,the operative succ -ession clauses will be given.This will enable the reader to follow with greater ease the controversies and misfortunes in the annals of the House of Fowlis to which this entail chiefly contributed.It may however,be well to give first the entailer's description of the lands then possessed by him and dealt with under this disposition.

He says:"I,SIR HARRY MUNRO of FOWLIS.BARONET for the love and affection I have to HUGH MUNRO my eldest lawful son,GEORGE MUNRO my second lawful son,and to the per- sons after-named,and for the support and continuance of my family and name and other good and weighty considerations me moving" and then binds himself and his heirs whomsoever to make lawful and due resignation of all his lands,barony,teind and other heritages after mentioned in the hands of his immediate lawful superior, to be made given,and granted to himself,to Hugh his eldest son,and his heirs,and whom failing to various others in succession whose names and designations will presently appear.Meantime we shall describe the lands as detailed in the deed. SIMON MUNRO (1741-1790) was a Colonel in the Colonial Troops(1st Regiment of Foot) He names his grant from King George the III"NOVAR" supposedly in Honor of the Castle and Estates of "NOVAR" (which adjoin those of "FOWLIS" CASTLE) held during Simon Munro's lifetime by the Celebrated Gen.Sir.Hector Munro Munro VIII of"NOVAR" 1727-1806.whose life was contemproary with that of my great-great grandfather's and whom he probably knew.and perhaps influenced the King and Governemnt in ob--taining his grant.although SIMON MUNRO bore but a slight relationship if any. supposing SIMON MUNRO'S mother Katherine Fraser to have been a sister of Anne or Agnes Munro.(both having been daughters of The Alexander Fraser who was Lord-Provost of Inverness.The Lord-Provost of Inverness,who was of the Fraser's of "Fairfield"(which is contracted by Duncan Warrand of"The Bught Inverness.Born 1877.who himself is. the great-great-great-great grandson of Anne (or Agnes Munro) who married who married HUGH MUNRO OF TEANINICH .who died before his father,and was the father of Hugh Munro V.of"Teaninich") and Katherine Fraser who was my great-great-great grandmother.(and I was not born until thirteen years after Duncan Warrand) was the wife of Alexander Munro VI.of"MILNTOWN-OF-ALNESS" the "Commissary-Depute" of Inverness.Katherine Fraser Munro having been born in 1702 so stae the Records at Inverness.married Alexander Munro in 1719.(we do not know the year of her death) but the Inverness Records state that she was the daughter of Alexander Fraser.Lord-Provost of Inverness.but there were two Lord -Prevosts of Inverness.by the name of Alexander Fraser.and Duncan Warrand's great -great-great-great Grandmother may have been the daughter of Alexander Fraser of"Fairfield" who was Lord-Provost of Inverness.as Alexander MacKenzie states in his "History of the Munro's.Page 420.under the Munros of"Teaninich"and my great-great-great Grandmother Katherine Fraser may have been a daughter of The Alexander Fraser who was of"BUGHT" and Lord-Provost of Inverness.Alexander Mackenzie simply states on Page 415.of his bokk,already quoted above. that Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of-Alness" married Catherine Fraser.daughter of Alexander Fraser Provost of Inverness.but in neither case does he state which Alexander Fraser it was.and there certainly was one Alexander Fraser Provost of Inverness,who owned the"property called"The BUGHT,as this property is now owned Anne or Agnes Fraser who married Hugh Munro of"Teaninich" to have been her sister) Sister.Anne Munro who married Hector Munro IV.of "Novar" However this can only be ascertained by a Mi-nute search of the Municipal Records at Inverness.

When the above brief pedigree is examined carefully,(with the very slight information that we have of"dates" as I have said only a thorough examination of the Municipal and County Records at the Castle at Inverness,will reveal this very neccessary information) it will be found that the years coincide fairly well for Anne Fraser the wife of Hugh Munro of"Teaninich" (who died before his father and evidently very young) to have been the sister of Catherine Fraser Munro,as her brother-in-law Alexander Munro was born as early as 1694 (this from the statistics at Inverness) her sister Catherine Fraser wife of Alexander Munro VI of"Milntown-of-Alness,in 1702,and Anne might easily have been born eight or ten years earlier.as Katherine Fraser the wife of Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of Alness was eight years younger than her husband.

The Tomb of Alexander Fraser Lord-Provost of Inverness.still stands in the old Cemetary near the Railway Station at Inverness,with the date of his death upon it"1739" the date of his birth has been obliterated by the passage of time (two hundred and eight years!) but if he was the Alexander Fraser Lord Provost of Inverness,who was of the Frasers of the"Bught" or the Alexander Fraser,Lord-Provost of Inverness,who was of the Frasers of"Fairfield" is not very clear.until the Publication of Duncan Warrand's Book"Some Fraser Pedigrees" in 1934,this Alexander Fraser who was Lord-Provost of Inverness,having been of "The Bught" was unknown to me.no "Frasers of"Bught" are mentioned in Alexander MacKenzie's"History of the Frasers is mentioned.(At the end of these notes I give a list of the children of Alexander Fraser,the Lord-Provost of Inverness,of the"BUGHT" as taken from the above mentioned work of Duncan Warrand.whom it is to be presumed ascertained this exact information,from the above mentioned records at the Castle at Inverness where all records are kept.)

Alexander Mackenzie Esq.in his History of the Frasers.published at Inverness in 1898.gives three Frasers as Lord-Provosts of Inverness One(James Fraser) of

"AchnaGairn" (Page 636)"JAMES FRASER IV.of"ACHNAGAIRN" a merchant and Provost of Inverness from 1764 to 1767" Two Frasers of The"Frasers of Fairfield" (Pages 683 and 684) all of what he states about them I quote in full"

"FINLAY FRASER IV of"FAIRFIELD"(son of Andrew Fraser III of"Fairfield"Grandson of Donald Fraser II.of"Fairfield"and great-grandson of Thomas Roy Fraser I.of"Fair-field" NATURAL SON of"HUGH THIRD LORD LOVAT"Born 1426 Died 1500)"acquired additi-al lands in Inverness and Neighborhood.HE ALSO HELD THE OFFICE OF PROVOST" The right to hold a special seat in the church was considered of great importance in those days,and Finlay secured an act of Session on the 20th of January 1662,grant-ing him a particular pew in the old High Church.In the same year at the time a Baillie of Inverness,he rode and won a great horse race at Tomnahurich against The Mackintosh of Mackintosh and others,In his time the right to the commonty of the Merkinch was revived.Mr.Fraser-Mackintosh says-"I find that he(Finlay),as heir served to his father,Andrew,raised letters of suspension before the Lords of Council and Session of the above-mentioed decree by the Provost and Baillie of Inverness against his father,dated 11th September 1678;and again in June 1690,Alexander Fraser complained to the Provost and Magistrates that Finlay Fraser,Late Provost late Provost of Inverness,had interrupted Alexander's servants from casting,binding,or leading fuel in the Carse on the west side of the Merkinch,which is commonty to the town of Inverness,and assuming the heritable right thereof to belong to him the said Finlay Fraser.This question of commonty was disputed all through the eighteenth century,but finally determined in favour of the late Hugh Duff of"Muirtown" who had become sole owner of"Merkinch".The same writer referring to this family(Celtic Magazine,Vol.X.p.337)in 1885.says that"About a year since when certain repairs were neccessary at the Chapel-Yard (the name of the oldest Cemetary at Inverness.which I have referred to above.R.M.E.) of Inverness,the state of a once handsomely carved tomb,at the north-east wall was declared dangerousIt was reported that not only did no one claim right to the ruined tomb,but even its original owners were unknown,and after some discussion the tomb was repaired and pointed at the town's expense,but has only been partly restored.The tomb was that of the once well-known and influential burghal-County family.THE FRASERS OF FAIRFIELD",and the above circumstances shows how completely they are forgotten" the Tomb has above the door,inside the wall the following initials.F.F.I.R.,and below them.D.F.and C.D.the first four being that of Provost Finlay Fraser and his wife Isobel Robertson.to whom he was married in 1656,with issue.

1.Andrew Fraser who died without male issue
2.David who ultimately succeeded his father
3.John whose name appears as a witness in 1745.

DAVID FRASER V.of"FAIRFIELD"who succeeded his father,a merchant in Inverness and one of the Baillies of the Burgh,in his day the family reached the zenith of its prosperity."Old Fairfield House",a prominent object in Slezer's view of Inverness, and part of which remained until recently,was built by David,or his father.He obtained a new act of the Session in connection with the family pew in the High Church,already referred to,on the 14th of October 1703.He married in July 1693 Christian Dunbar eldest daughter of John Dunbar of"Bennetsfield",the second set of initials above the door and inside the Fairfield tomb.D.F.and C.D.being his and hers respectively.One of his cautioners under the marriage contract,was his eldest brother Andrew Fraser.Burgess of Inverness,while for her obligations under the same document stood her mother Christian Mackenzie(or Dunbar);her uncle Sir. Alexander Mackenzie II of"Coul",and another Uncle Simon Mackenzie I.of"Torridon" by this marriage David Fraser had at least one son.

ALEXANDER FRASER VI OF"FAIRFIELD"

He was PROVOST OF INVERNESS from 1723 to 1725.1728-to 1729. and 1732 to 1735.

He bought"Kimmylies" from David Polson and subsequently sold it to George Ross of of"Pitkerrie" a merchant in London (Shaw's Province of Moray,Vol.II.page 333.1882 edition) In this Alexander's time the family began to decline,and he sold a consi derable portion of the property acquired by his father.The first subject that he disposed of was the pew in the High Church which his father and grandfather valued so highly,and which had cost them so much trouble so much trouble to secure as one of the treasured family possessions.But Alexander sold it to John Fraser,merchant in Inverness for Ten pounds sterling by deed dated and signed by him"at the House of Kimmylies" on the 19th of July 1738,on the 17th of July 1739.Alexander sold to the same John Fraser,two acres of his arable ten acres of land on the Carse.By another deed dated the 14th of May 1743.He sold to Duncan Fraser,merchant in Inver ness son of the above-named John Fraser,the two roods of land on the west side of The River Ness,which had belonged to his predecessors since 1596,as well as some acres and roods in St.Thomas's Chapel.He also disposed of several acres, roods,and rigs in the Crase called Lochnaguan,Gairbread,Knockandow,the Little Carse,the Whin bush Carse,and Sandy Acre.On the 1st of September the same year he sold the lands of "est Balliferry to Robert Fraser of"Phopachy".By a disposition dated the 28th o May 1745.Alexander's mother Christian Dunbar of"Bennetsfield"renounced her life- rent of certain of the family property,the witnesses to the deed being John Fraser her brother-in-law,and Alexander Fraser her son,this"Fairfield" also disposed of the family possessions on the Merkinch,before 1754,for in that years list of"the burgage mails and feu-duties of the Burgh of Inverness"William Duff of"Muirtown" i entered as owner of the Merkinch lands"from"Fairfield"(and) from Baillie David his father" the feu then payable being one pound six shillings three pence.Scots.In this same list Alexander still appears as a feuar of various properties in the town,the"shop under the Tolbooth,the fourth from the east from Bailie his father" being one of them.

This is the same Alexander Fraser of Fairfield with whom Simon Fraser Lord Lovat quarrelled so fiercely in 1741 because he would not support Norman Macleod as Par liamentary Candidate for the County of Inverness.against Sir.James Grant of Grant Alexander took an active part in the Rising of 1745,and to this the decline of the family in his time has been attributed.In the accounts of the disbursements of the Depute Governor and Treasurer for Prince Charles,at Perth,there is an entry under December the 3rd.1745-"To Mr.Fraser of Fairfield,for 97 pairs of shoes at two shillings six pence for the army-Twelve pounds,two shillings and six pence" On the 10th of the same month we have-"To Mr.Fraser of Fairfield,payment of other Companies of Frasers as they came up to December 4th,Fourteen pounds.Seventeen shillings.To Ditto as pay of all the Frasers from December 4th,to Wednesday.12th. Sixty-One pounds.Fifteen Shillings.Six.Pence"and on the 16th-"To Mr.Fraser,to pay the Frasers 3 days for Wed.Thursd,and Frid.ye 13th-Twenty-six pounds,nine shilling six pence" and on the 16th-To Fairfield 6 days pay to ye Frasers from Sat 14th in- clusive to Friday ye 20th--Fifty-two pounds,Nineteen Shillings"On the 10th of Jan- uary 1746,Alexander is described as"Major Fraser of Fairfield" when he receives te pounds"in part payment of his pay till account"the Master of Lovat receiving his first payment being"four weeks pay,eight pounds,eight shillings"on the same date. Alexander married a daughter of WILLIAM FRASER V.of INVERALOCHY,by Lady Elizabeth daughter of Alexander Third Earl of Kellie with issue.

ALEXANDER.his heir and Successor

ELIZABETH. who has a bond of provision in her favour,for two hundred and six pound Twelve shillings,six pence from her father"upliftable furth of the lands of"Fair- field"and finally discharged by her brother.Simon in favour of her Nephew.Andrew Fraser of Fairfield on the 6th.of January 1794.,the year in which the latter succ -eeded to the family estates.

He married secondly Elizabeth MacLean ,with issue

SIMON.a merchant in Inverness,described in an instrument of Sasine,dated the 6th of May 1777.as"lawful son to the said deceased Alexander Fraser of"Fairfield"being (then)the only surviving child procreate of the marriage betwixt the said deceased Alexander Fraser of Fairfield.and the deceased Mrs.Elizabeth Maclean his second spouse.

KATHERINE.described in the same document as now deceased--that is in 1777.
(The FRASERS of This line of"FAIRFIELD" appear to have become extinguished in the person of ANDREW FRASER VIII.of"FAIRFIELD" Grandson of ALEXANDER FRASER VI. OF FAIRFIELD.(above)the son of His son ALEXANDER FRASER VII.of"FAIRFIELD." this ANDREW FRASER VIII of"FAIRFIELD"was a Captain in the Bengal Light Infantry,and succeeded his father ALEXANDER FRASER VII of"FAIRFIELD" in the remaining estates of the family in 1794. and he appears according to Alexander Mackenzie's"History of the Frasers" continued selling more of the remaining estates of his father and Grandfather.He"married=(?)=? with issue at least one son.and several other children,who were minors at the date of his death,before August 1814.,leaving them only"fragments" of what was once a very considerable and valuable property. His widow married again in India.what became of his children"we have not been able to ascertain")

So much for the"FRASERS" of "FAIRFIELD" for as much as it is worth.most unfortuna-tely I have found Alexander Mackenzie's works both on the Fraser and Munro Families,very much in error in many instances.but I do not suppose anyone ever compiled a Generalogy without any errors!

In a little booklet sent to me by a Friend at Inverness called"Notes on the Chapel Yard,Inverness,and some of its old monuments,with a notice of Heraldic Devices on Tombstones at"Kilmun" by F.T. Macleod. F.S.A. Scot. he mentioned the above mentioned Fraser Tomb in the Chapel Yard.bearing the dates 1685.while I was sure that I copied down the dates 1739.the day I visited it,but I must have made an error. as the former date corresponds more exactly to the state-ments of Alexander MacKenzie,as he states that the Provost Finlay Fraser,and Isobel Robertson were married in 1656,and they were the first to be interred in this tomb.(the Grandparents of the Provost Alexander Fraser.who was Provost of Inverness. as late as 1735. during the lifetime of my great-great-great grand-father Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of-Alness" as I have already states ALEXANDER MACKENZIE definitely states in his HISTORY OF THE MUNROS. Page 415. under the"MUNROS OF MILNTOWN OF ALNESS" that ALEXANDER MUNRO VI OF"MILNTOWN-OF ALNESS MARRIED."CATHERINE DAUGHTER OF ALEXANDER FRASER PROVOST OF INVERNESS"

BUT ALEXANDER MACKENZIE IN HIS "HISTORY OF THE FRASERS" Page 687. UNDER THE "FRASERS OF FAIRFIELD" GIVES A DAUGHTER NAMED"KATHERINE FRASER"AS A DAUGHTER OF ALEXANDER FRASER THE SIXTH OF"FAIRFIELD" AND LORD PROVOST OF INVERNESS FROM 1723 to 1735.BUT HE SAYS NOTHING ABOUT HER HAVING MARRIED ALEXANDER MUNRO THE"COMMISSARY -DEPUTE OF INVERNESS.(my great-great-great grandfather) HE ALSO GIVES A DAUGHTER NAMED ELIZABETH,AS A DAUGHTER OF THIS ALEXANDER FRASER VI.OF"FAIRFIELD" PROVOST OF INVERNESS BUT ALSO SAYS NOTHING ABOUT HER HAVING MARRID"HUGH MUNRO OF"TEANINICH YET HE STATES IN HIS"HISTORY OF THE MUNROS"(as I have said before) UNDER THE MUNROS OF"TEANINICH" PAGE 420."THAT HUGH MUNRO OF"TEANINICH" (who died before his father HUGH MUNRO IV.OF"TEANINICH" who died shortly before February 7th,1701) MARR -IED.ELIZABETH FRASER DAUGHTER OF ALEXANDER FRASER,PROVOST OF INVERNESS"

Although Alexander Mackenzie.does not state that she married Alexander Munro.it would be quite possible for the daughter Katherine (this name is often spelled both "Katherine" and"Catherine") whom Alexander MacKenzie gives as having been the daughter of Alexander Fraser VI.of"Fairfield" and Provost of Inverness.to have been one and the same,as the Katherine or Catherine Fraser Born in 1702.who marr--ied Alexander Munro VI of"Milton-of-Alness" and Commissary-Depute of Inverness as even if she was dead by 1777.and having been born in 1702.she would not have been very old.seventy three or seventy-four years of age,when she died.and while we do not possess the date of birth of Elizabeth Fraser who married Hugh Munro of"Teaninich"(her sister) even if she was ten years older than her sister Cather--ine,and was also dead by 1794.the year that her Nephew Andrew-Munro VIII of"Fairfield"succeeded to the Family estates.as stated by Alexander Mackenzie in his "History of the Frasers"(Page 686) she would then have been 93 or 94,and probably the Elizabeth Fraser,therein mentioned died a great many years previously to that. only a thorough search of the Inverness Records can ascertain this information. NOW,if there was another ALEXANDER FRASER who was"PROVOST" of INVERNESS,and if he was the PROVOST OF INVERNESS.who was the father of Catherine Fraser Born 1702 and who in 1719.married Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of-Alness" The Commissary -Depute of Inverness.Born in 1694.(which he certainly was as Leo Culleton.now in 1947.deceased.obtained this information for me,from research work done for me.

when he made a thorough search of the Records at Inverness in 1915)He must have been PROVOST OF INVERNESS.between the years 1690-1702.as he found in the Marriage and Baptismal Records at Inverness.that on her Baptismal Record in which the date of her birth is given,it distinctly states"Daughter of ALEXANDER FRASER PROVOST of INVERNESS.(so that he was either PROVOST OF INVERNESS at the time of her birth or had been before her birth,it could not have been AFTER her birth) and his wife Elizabeth Fraser.(If this is intended to mean that her maiden name was Elizabeth Fraser,or is simply given as the surname of her maiden name I do not know.Alexan -der Mackenzie does not give the given name of the first wife of Aleander Fraser VI.of Fairfield.but he does state that the surname of the mother of his first wife was Elizabeth.daughter of Alexander,Third Earl of Mar and Kellie,and perhaps Elizabeth.the daughter of Alexander Fraser VI of"Fairfield" who was Provost of Inverness.and was a daughter of this first wife,was named for her grandmother, and perhaps also for her own mother,as we do not know her given name.but be it noted.also that the given name of the Second wife of Alexander Fraser VI.of"Fair-field.who was Provost of Inverness,was Elizabeth,Elizabeth MacLean.and according to Alexander Mackenzie.the mother of his daughter"Katherine) but it does seem incredible and amazing that there should have been two Provosts of Inverness so near together.both bearing the name of Alexander.one with a family of four children three of whom bore the names of Alexander,Elizabeth and Catherine,and the other (as will be seen below) with a family of [illegible] children three of whom also bore the same names of Alexander.Elizabeth and Catherine,and that these two families were not related to each other,or that they are not ONE AND THE SAME,as Inverness was but a small town in 1740. It would be interesting to ascertain among the land records at Inverness,if at any time the family of Fraser of"Fairfield" owned the lands that comprised the"BUGHT" so certain was the Late"Sheriff-Clerk Alexander Chisholm,of Inverness,that my great-great-great grandmother Catherine Fraser daughter of Alexander Fraser of"Fairfield" Provost of Inverness,was the one who married Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of-Alness" that he took me to the Chapel Yard Cemetary in 1915,and to the tomb of Alexander Fraser who was Provost of Inver ness from 1723 to 1735,and standing before it said"HERE IS THE TOMB OF YOUR ANCES

-TOR.ALEXANDER FRASER OF"FAIRFIELD" THE PROVOST OF INVERNESS,and OF HIS FATHER FINLAY FRASER,WHO ALSO WAS PROVOST OF"INVERNESS" when I returned to America in 1918,and talked it all over with mother (who died in 1922)and who was greatly interested in the ancestors of her great-grandfather SIMON MUNRO (1741-1790) she seemed tp remember having heard as a girl,the mentuon of the name"Fairfield" her Grandmother ANNA MUNRO.(1787-1857) wife of DR.CHARLES ROGERS (1780-1849) died when she was six years of age,and she only just remembered her.(my mother having been born in 1851)but her sister.AMARINTHA MUNRO(1785-1859) wife of Major John Stevens.and was her great Aunt died when she was eight,and she remembered her very well. her mother my grandmother (who died in 1900) who I remember very well was a "Yankee" and an"abolitionist"and came from Hartford,Connecticut.and was not accepteble to the South,and when her husband my grandfather.Dr.David Munro Rogers (1827-1853)died at the early age of twenty-five years and four months.my grandmother return to the North,to Hartford,and made her home there,that was in 1858 or 1859,and some years afterwards.mother thought it was after the war between the States in 1866 ot 1867.a letter that had been sent by someone at Inverness to the descendents of Simon Munro in Georgia.had been sent to her mother my Grandmother by some memeber of the Stevens Family.(a son of Amarintha Munro and Major John Stevens) it was a letter making inquiry about the descendents of Simon Munro.my mother was a girl of fifteen or sixteen at the time,and the letter had been forwarded on to my grandmother by the Stevens family as they thought that among her late husbands papers there might be the desired information in "toto" and mother distinctly remembered at the time the mention of the name of "Fairfield"although over fifty years had passed,but she thought it was in conn--ection with the Ancestors of Simon Munro in the male line. not until the publication of"Major Warrand's Book "Some Fraser Pedigrees" in 1934 (as I have stated before)has there been any question.of SIMON MUNRO"MOTHER having been descended from any other Fraser Family but the Frasers of"Fairfield" although this may be an error,below are the children of Alexander Fraser,whom Major Warrand calls Provost of Inverness,and whom he says died in 1789 (I still am positive I saw this date somewhere on the Fraser Tomb in the Chapel Yard Cemetary.

"ALEXANDER FRASER,whose parentage has not been ascertained,was PROVOST OF INVERNESS on several occaisions*He had been graduated(probably at Aberdeen),and is always distinguished by the"Mr"as Master Alexander Fraser,Provost of Inverness"his death was recorded 22 May 1739.
He married Elizabeth Fraser,They had issue five sons and six daughters,eleven chil ren.

1.James Fraser,merchant in Inverness,died unmarried in 1719.and the inventory of his goods was given in 1720 by Mr.Alexander Fraser,present Provost of Inverness Father to the deceased

III

WILLIAM FRASER,OF"BUGHT",eldest surviving son of Alexander Fraser,Provost of Inverness,was served as heir to his brother James in 1727.he appears in 1737 as William Fraser Town-Clerk of Inverness,and eldest son of Alexander Fraser, sometime Provost of Inverness.He purchased the lands of"Bught" about 1741
He married(1)=Christian Robertson and had issue.

1.Elizabeth Fraser wife of Captain Thomas Wallcott,12th Regiment

2.Catherine Fraser,wife of Jonathan Forbes of""ellfield",was served heir-portioner general to her father 10th March 1787.Her heir was her daughter Christian or Christina Henderson who became the"Good Lady of"Gairloch"

3.Christian(or Christina) Fraser wife of John Grant in Ferintosh,factor to Culloden was served heir to her father 10th March 1787.

4.Isobel Fraser was married in 1787 to William Henderson,sometime lessee of"Bught" bleeching fields,and died 1769.

.WILLIAM FRASER of"BUGHT" married=(2)=,Mary Reading,and had issue

5.Jean Fraser served heir to her father 10th.March 1787.died unmarried in 1795

6.Sibella(or Sybil)Fraser was served heir to her father 10th March,1787 she was the wife of the Rev.Murdoch MacIver,Minister of Lochlash.

*ALEXANDER FRASER,PROVOST OF INVERNESS,WAS NOT of FAIRFIELD,AS HAS OFTEN BEEN STATED.HE MAY POSSIBLY,HOWEVER HAVE BEEN OF THE"BELLADRUM"FAMILY.There were many FRASERS named ALEXANDER,who were connected with Inverness,e.g.Alexander Fraser a burgess of Inverness,had a wife Mary Fraser,who died in 1699(Com.Inv.TEST.); Alexander Fraser Bailie of Inverness had a child Mary Fraser,buried at Kirkhill in 1763 (W.B.of M.);Alexander Fraser merchant in Inverness 1705 had a sister Anne Fraser married to William Rose(P.R.S.Inv.);Alexander Fraser merchant burgess of Inverness,and his wife Elspet Fraser.had a son David.Baptized at Inverness in 1706.

Com.Inv;Test.The surviving children are named as heirs to their brother James

 Testament of her brother James.

* The Property was purchased soon after Duncan Grant,writer in Inverness, who had married Jean Baillie,daughter of Hugh Baillie of"Dochfour" Clerk Fraser it is related(B.P.) was going with James Cumming,writer to the insestment on the lands of Wester Drakies in 1775 and was"blown down by the wind" -----after which he was never the same"

But what I cannot understand is why Duncan Warrand in his letters to me refers to Alexander Fraser Provost of Inverness (above) as of the"BUGHT" when the proper-ty of the"BUGHT" was not owned by this family of Fraser until the time of the above mentioned Alexander Fraser's(Provost of Inverness) son WILLIAM Fraser,as Duncan Warrand states himself?.

It has always been supposed,that my great-great grandfather SIMON MUNRO ("SIMON" never before having been used as a given name among the Munros) was named for his God-father SIMON FRASER XIII Lord Lovat.the famous(or infamous,as one feels in regard to the uprising of"Bonnie Prince Charlie" to regain the Throne of his Stewart Ancestors) "SIMON OF THE'45" (who was the last person to be hung,drawn and quartered on Tower Hill,London April 9th.1746) but the fact that Alexander FRASER VI.of"FAIRFIELD" AND PROVOST OF INVERNESS.had a son"SIMON" and if Catherine Fraser (born 1702) my great-great-great grandmother who in 1719.married Alexander Munro VI.of"Milntown-of-Alness" The Commissary Depute of Inverness.was also a daughter of ALEXANDER FRASER VI.of"FAIRFIELD" and PROVOST OF INVERNESS.he would have been her brother.and his sister Catherine Fraser Munro might have named her son for her brother,which would be another proof.of ALEXANDER FRASER VI OF"FAIR-FIELD" and PROVOST of INVERNESS having been Catherines father.as despite the seemingly excellent proof,that my great-great-great grandmother was a daughter of this Alexander Fraser,who was Provost of Inverness I still am actually not convinced that such is the fact.as Major Duncan Warrand.who now owns the property nowhere in his book"Some Fraser Pedigrees" states that he quotes from the Inverness Municipal,or County Records.

I feel that Major Duncan Warrand is quite justified that This Alexander Fraser who was Provost of Inverness,and died in 1739(Nowhere does Major Duncan Warrand state what year or years Alexander was Provost of Inverness) was of the Fraser Family of"Belladrum" (and I would prefer to be descended from the Frasers of Belladrum" rather than the Frasers of"Fairfield" anyway.as if this Alexander Fraser who was Provost of Inverness and died in 1739,fits into the family of "Belladrum" where we suppose he does.he was the son of Hugh Fraser V.of"Bella Drum" amd Janet Chisholm,daughter of Alexander Chisholm XVII of Chisholm.the Grandson of Hugh Fraser IV.of"Belladrum"and a daughter of Roderick Mackenzie V.of"Davochmaluag".great-grandson of Hugh Fraser III.of"Belladrum" and Katherine Mackenzie ,daughter of John Roy Mackenzie of"Gairloch" great-great grandson of Hugh Fraser II of"Belladrum" and Janet Chisholm.daughter of Alexander Chisholm XIV.of"Chisholm" the son of James Fraser I.of"Belladrum"and Elizabeth Mackenzie daughter of Alexander Mackenzie I.of "Davochmalaug" who was the second son of William Fraser I.of "Guichachan"Second Son of Thomas Fraser IV.Lord Lovat" while the Provost ALEXANDER SIXTH OF"FAIRFIELD" was the great-great grandson of THOMAS FOY FRASER.A NATURAL SON OF HUGH III Lord Lovat.and in the South we do not like to claim"BASTARDS" as our Ancestors!) as we find an ALEXANDER FRASER (I quote from Major Duncan Warrand's own book"Some Fraser Pedigrees") the Fourth son of HUGH FRASER V.of"BELLADRUM" who fits in perfectly with the Alexander Fraser who was Provost of Inverness and Died in 1739.

"ALEXANDER FRASER.witnessed a bond in 1707 as lawful son of Hugh Fraser of "Belladrum" especially as regards the similarity of given names of the brothers and sisters of this Alexander Fraser(above mentioned) and the given names of the children of Alexander Fraser the Provost who Major Duncan Warrand says died in 1739. I quote from "Some Fraser Pedigrees in Full.

HUGH FRASER OF BELLADRUM,eldest son of Hugh Fraser of"Belladrum" by his wife Isobel Chisholm,was as younger of Belladrum.M.P. for the shire of Inverness in 1685 and 1686. he died in or before 1710.=(1)=Janet Grant eldest daughter of Lieutenant-Col.Patrick Grant,sometime tutor of Grant,the marriage contract was dated at"Belladrum" 29th.November 1660.sasines of following 1st and 2nd of June 1682 in their favour,of"Belladrum" Etc.she died May 6th 1684.He married=(2)= Anna Fraser,eldest daughter of Hugh Fraser IV.of"Kinneries by his wife Barbara Mackenzie.she was living in 1711.

1.JAMES FRASER of"Belladrum"of whom hereafter

2.Peter Fraser,whose name would suggest that he was of the first marriage He is also mentioned in an account book in 1734,as brother-german to Belladrum,and he appears as Peter Fraser Tutor of Belladrum in 1749.

(I cannot see why Major Duncan Warrand states that the name Peter would suggest that he was of the first marriage of Hugh Fraser to Janet Grant unless"Peter" was a customary and common name,in the family of Grant.P.M.E.)

3.Isobel Fraser Baptized 15th December 1681.

Issue by his second wife Anna Fraser

4.ALEXANDER FRASER witness to a Bond in 1707.as lawful son of Hugh Fraser of"Belladrum"
(This is perhaps the Provost of Inverness who died in 1739.P.M.E.)

5.Simon Fraser,witnessed the same bond as lawful son of Hugh Fraser of Belladrum.

6.William Fraser was buried May 24th 1698 age 2 years

7. Katherine Fraser wife of Alexander Fraser of"Reelig"

8.Emilia Fraser Baptized 24 June 1698.

9.Christian,wife of Alexander Mackenzie of Applecross,having a jointure of 4 chalders out of the lands of"Killichrist"

Five out of these nine children.viz. Isobel.Alexander.William Katherine,and Christian.bearing the same names as the names of the children of Alexander Fraser the Provost of Inverness who died in 1739.(P.M.E.)

Alexander Mackenzie.in his Book"The History of the Frasers" under the Frasers of "Belladrum" Pages 629.and 630.gives the following.

HUGH FRASER FIFTH of BELLADRUM.He is a student in Aberdeen University in 1667 while"younger of"Belladrum".He was a member of the Scottish Parliament for the County of Inverness in 1678.and again in 1685 and 1686.He is entered in the Valuation Pool for 1691,in the Parish of Wardlaw for a rental of two hundred and eighty-eight pounds ;in Kiltarlity for two hundred and ninety-six pounds all Scots.His name appears in the Act of the Scottish Parliament passed on the 10th of July 1695,as being the author of a"Report under the hands of Hugh Fraser of Belladrum and James Fraser of Reelick,Commissioners of supply,3td and 4th of Vebruary 1691,who had taken the dispositions for the barony of"Urquhart" in a claim by Sir.Ludovick Grant of Grant for losses sustained by him during the Revolution (Chiefs of Grant Vol.III Page 483)It will be observed that his rentals are very much reduced in the Parishes of Wardlaw and Kiltarlity since 1644,and the whole of the Four hundred and sixty-eight pounds dissappears from the Parish of Kilmorac,Indeed he has now only a total rental of three hundred and eighty-eight pounds as against One thousnad one hundred and seventy-four poubds thirteen shillings and four pence forty-seven years earlier.He was one of the trustees of both Eleventh Lord Lovat,during his Lordship's minority,along with Kenneth Mor Mackenzie,third Earl of Seaforth,and Sir.George Mackenzie of "Tarbart",and in 1677,young Lord Lovat then in his twelfth year,was removed to

Belladrums House,where he was placed under"proper tutors" and remained there until he went to the University
He married Janet Chisholm,daughter of Alexander Chisholm XVII of Chisholm.with issue

1.Alexander Fraser,who died before his father,but who in 1680,then described as Alexander Fraser Younger of"Belladrum".married Margaret daughter of Colin Mackenzie III.of Redcastle,with issue,James,who succeeed his grandfather.

2.William,who is described as one of the studeuts in Aberdeen University in 1679. ,as "Gulielmus Fraser,filius domini de Belladrum"

3.Simon Fraser,designated in the same list as Simon Fraser ejusdem frater.

4.Anne who married William Fraser fifth son of James Fraser of "Dunballoch" without issue.

Major Duncan Warrand gives no daughter Anne of this Hugh Fraser Fifth of"Bella drum. and Alexander Mackenzie.gives the name of only one wife,Janet Chisholm while Major Duncan Warrand,states that he married first Janet Grant and then Anne Fraser "THUS DO THE SCOTS AGREE"

Alexander Mackenzie in his often quoted"History of the Frasers" as quoted above states that Alexander Fraser "died before his father" so that he then could not have lived to be the"Provost of Inverness who died in 1739. whereas Major Duncan Warrand,now of the"Bught" Inverness.states that he"witnessed a bond in 1707,as lawful son of Hugh Fraser of"Belladrum" which I would not suppose he would have been able to do in that capacity,unless he was of legal age.at least eighteen years of age.which would have made the date of his birth about 1688,and if this is the Alexander who was Provost of Inverness,and died in 1739,that would have made him about fifty-two years of age at the time of his death.so that the years dove-tail more or less correctly.

Neither Major Duncan Warrand in his book"Some Fraser Pedigrees" nor Alexander Mackenzie in his"History of the Frasers" mention a daughter Elizabeth Fraser the former among the children of Alexander Fraser the Provost of Inverness whom he states died in 1739.nor the latter among the children of Alexander Fraser of"Fairfield" who was Provost of Inverness from 1723 to 1735. who married HUGH MUNRO OF"TEANINICH" (who died before his father Hugh Munro IV.of"Teaninich (Page 686) although there was an Elizabeth Fraser whom Alexander Mackenzie mentions as a daughter of this Alexander Fraser VI of"Fairfield" who was Provost of Inverness.During the years I have just stated,who has a bond of provision.in her favour for two hundred and six pounds,twelve shillings and six pence(as I have stated before in these notes)but Alexander MacKenzie does not state in what year. Nor does Alexander MacKenzie state exactly what year Alexander Fraser VI.of"Fairfield" who was Provost of Inverness died.so that the Elizabeth Fraser who married Hugh Munro of"Teaninich" if not the daughter of Alexander Fraser VI of"Fairfield" and Provost of Inverness(she could not have been the daughter of Alexander Fraser the Provost of Inverness who died in 1739,as Major Duncan Warrand states that his daughter Elizabeth was in 1720.the wife of Robert Paterson.of the Royal Scots Fus -iliers)must have been the daughter of still another Alexander Fraser who was Pro -vost of Inverness.

"In the"Teaninich Papers" of which I have seen a copy at Inverness.(I suppose that the originals are in the possession of the Teaninich Family,which I believe has died out in the male line) it states that"HUGH MUNRO IV.of"TEANINICH"(who dide shortly after February 7th,1701)purchased from "His Cousin" JOHN MUNRO of"MILNTOWN -OF ALNESS"(that is John Munro V.of"Milntown-of-Alness"and the father of Alexand -er Munro the"Commissary"and grandfather of SIMON MUNRO,who was my great-great-grandfather)the Estates of"Milntown-of-Alness" about the year 1660 but this can only mean a"Cousin" in descent from the Munros.(they would have been fourth Cous -ins,Hugh Munro having been descended from John Munro I.of Coul and Second of Balconie" and John Munro V.of Milntown of Alness.from the brother of John Munro I.of Coul and Second of Balconie.Robert Munro I.of"Milntown-of Alness" both being sons of Hugh Munro I.of"Coul" and Grandsons of George Munro The Tenth Baron of "Fowlis" who died in 1452.but in Scotland.Cousins are counted to the Ninth and Tenth Generation!) as it was his son (that is the son of John Munro V.of"Milntown -of-Alness)Alexander Munro the"Commissary"who married Catherine Fraser.,whose sis -ter Elizabeth Fraser,is supposed to have married Hugh Munro of"Teaninich" (Son of the above Hugh Munro IV.of"Teaninich"who,having died before his father his son Hugh Munro V.of"Teaninich" and grandson of Hugh Munro IV.of"Teaninich" succeeded to the estates of"Teaninich"

We have no further record of the other Children of John Munro V.and last to poss

Thus it will be seen within the twelve preceeding pages.the "SUPREME EFFORT" made by SIR.HARRY MUNRO.THE XXV BARONET OF"FOWLIS" to retain the Castle and Estates of Fowlis,in the DIRECT MALE LINE.under his entail executed in 1776. realizing that even then for over a"SEVEN HUNDRED YEARS" that The CHIEFTAINSHIP OF THE"CLAN MUNRO" THE CASTLE AND ESTATES HAD NEVER BEEN SEPERATED THE ONE FROM THE OTHER.It therefore makes it all the more unpardonable that the grandson (The LATE SIR.HECTOR MUNRO The XXIX.BARONET AND XI.BARONET OF"NOVA SCOTIA" of the Son of SIR HARRY MUNRO 'S FOURTH COUSIN (SIR CHARLES MUNRO VI OF"CULRAIN" 1795-1886.Who succeeded to the BARONETCY OF"FOWLIS" in 1848.as THE XXVII BARON OF"FOWLES" and THE NINTH BARONET OF"NOVA SCOTIA" and to the Castle and Estates of Fowles.in 1849,upon the death of Mary Munro.without issue.only child of SIR HUGH MUNRO THE XXVI.BARON OF FOWLIS (1763-1848) and EIGHT BARONET OF NOVA SCOTIA.should have wilfully alienated both The Castle and Estates,at his death to the female line,even though it was his own daughter's son.when he had very near"Heirs" THE FIVE SONS.(Viz.George Hamilton Munro.Born 1864.Arthur Talbot Munro born 1866.Charles Munro Born 1869.Percy Munro born 1870.Arnold Harry Munro Born 1871. and Herman Vezin Munro.Born 1875) OF HIS FATHER'S.(SIR.CHARLES MUNRO's.1824-1888.and XXXVIII BARONET OF"FOWLIS")Brother HARRY MUNRO.(not to be Confused with Sir.Harry Munro the XXV.Baronet who died in 1781),and grandsons of Sir.Charles Munro the XXVII.Baronet 1795-1886,Therefore his own FIRST COUSINS.seems incredible.These five men mentioned above.I know were not men of education,nor did they at the time occupy the Social position,relative to a Baron of"Fowlis" and a Baronet of Nova Scotia,and Chief of the"Clan Munro"but as I have stated elswhere in this Article.Sir Hector Munro knew ever since the birth of his last child a daughter Violet Munro in 1897.that only the slender thread of one life.that of His son.HECTOR CHARLES SEYMOUR MUNRO.Born 1894.' and who most unfortunately was killed in action in world war I.in 1918) hung between him and the future BARON OF"FOWLIS" and CHIEF OF THE CLAN MUNRO.as that title was inherited as fortunately SCOTTISH LAW DEMANDS.by the first of the five sons of his Uncle.Harry Munro.(mentioned above) the present SIR.GEORGE HAMILTON MUNRO CHIEF OF THE CLAN MUNRO.XXX BARON OF"FOWLIS" AND TWELFTH BARONET OF"NOVA SCOTIA" whom the Late Sir.Hector Munro upon his death in 1936. has made the first."Landle Baron of"Fowlis"(as the present Chief of the"CLAN MUNRO".Baron and Batonet,is Childless,his next younger brother ARTHUR TALBOT MUNRO,and his son and grandson will each suceeed in turn by Scottish Law to the oldest title in the United Kingdom,save that of Lord Kinsale in Ireland.

BELOW I will give the exact degree of relationship of EACH MALE HEIR.OF THE FOURTEEN MALE HEIRS" mentioned under the entail of Sir.Harry Munro The XXV.BARON OF "FOWLIS" in 1776.to the executor of this entail.But,so determined does Sir.Harry Munro seem to have been that the Castle and Estates of"FOWLIS"(which have never before been seperated since the year 1050)should be held intact and never be seper-ated together with the Baronetcy.In the MALE LINE,that he even named as his SEVENTH HEIR.Colonel Hector Munro of"NOVAR"(later General Sir.Hector Munro VIII.of "NOVAR")who was the great-great-great grandson of JOHN MOR MUNRO I.of"PITTONOCHY" (extinct since 1700)A"NATURAL OR ILLEGETIMATE SON OF GEORGE MUNRO IV.OF"MILNTOWN" (Circa 1573) and oddly enough General Sir Hector Munro VIII of "Novar" himself left only"BASTARDS" two sons who each succeeded in turn to the Castle and Estates of"Novar" and a Bastard daughter"Jean Munro" who married Sir.Ronald Crawford-Fergusson of"Raith" and whose great-grandson.Sir.Ronald Munro-Fergussson at present owns the Castle and Estates of"Novar" which adjoins the Castle and Estates of "FOWLIS" and GENERAL SIR.HECTOR MUNRO VIII of"NOVAR" would only have been a FIFTH or TENTH ILLEGETIMATE COUSIN OF SIR HARRY MUNRO'S GRANDFATHER SIR.ROBERT MUNRO THE XXIII.BARON OF"FOWLIS.who died in 1729.Why SIR.HARRY MUNRO should have chosen General Sir Hector Munro VIII of"Novar" as one of his"HEIRS" cannot be judged at the distance of One hundred and seventy-two years.but his act.in the fact that he did do so does not merit commendation.except for the fact of SIR HARRY MUNRO'S great determination.to keep the Castle and Estates of FOWLES in the possession of a MALE REPRESENTETIVE.of THE CLAN MUNRO.

THE FOURTEEN HEIRS UNDER THE ENTAIL OF SIR.HARRY MUNRO THE XXV.BARON OF"FOWLIS" AND VII BARONET OF"NOVA SCOTIA" EXECUTED in 1776.AND THE DEGREE OF RELATIONSHIP THAT EACH SUCCESSIVE HEIR BORE TO HIM.

Rev.Dr.Theodore Gallaudet

"The celebrity of a prison is established not so much by those it contains as by those who manage to break its bonds and bounds.The most interesting episodes in the life of any penal house are its failures,those instances in which stone and steel are brought low before the stuange power of the human spirit.

Of the hundreds of thousands of ordinary men who have passed in and out of the two Tombs prisons in their ninety-one years of service,history will recall nothing. Even the official records will make only perfunctory mention of them.But many pages are printed about the few score who broke the jails,and made them worthy of men's interest and curiosity.

This jail first opened its door to the criminal public in 1838,and it was not more than a few months later when some of the inmates began to plan escapes and deliver -ies.In fact,scarcely a year passed without a few immature releases.All of twenty years went by,however,before there happened a flight from the arms of the law,as represented by the Tombs and its Officials,that seems to merit relation to this day.In 1858 we come upon the mirthful and enebrious adventure of DR.THEODORE GALLAUDET.

This doctor was a man of temprement and spirit.He dwelt at that time at the New York Hotel,owned by a fellow named Cranston.A roomer in the hotel had been taken ill.DR.GALLAUDET,having been summoned,discovered that the man was afflicted with samallpox.Instaad of reporting the matter at once to the proprietor and having the unhappy patient removed to the pesthouse,DR.GALLAUDET kept his own counsel,with th result that Cranston's hotel was either quarrantined or threatened with such actio Not long afterward,DR.GALLAUDET was dining in the hotel when the proprietor went t his table and undertook to reprove him in no gentle terms.The doctor retorted hotl and was even more severely reproved by his boniface,until he picked up a carafe ar tossed it with some force against Cramston's objectional head.The Hotel man went down and out,with a severe wound in his scalp.He had the doctor arrested,and a trial in the court of general sessions resulted in the conviction of GALLAUDET. He was sentenced to a year in the penitentiary.

On November twentieth,two Tombs keepers were detailed to remove the physician fro that prison ,where he had been detained after his sentence,to the Island.

DR.GALLAUDET suggested to the"Boys" that,since he was about to be locked up for a year and would miss the comforts and luxuries of life,a farewell dinner seemed in order.If the boys felt inclined to be a bit reasonable,he would take them to one of the best restaurants uptown,Fourteenth Street,no less,and buy them the choicest meal in the city. Such munificent jailbirds did not fly Tombsward every day,so the keepers accepted .

At the restaurant,DR.GALLAUDET played the liberal host.He ordered sauterne to begin with,several bottles.Then he recited a list of courses to the waiters,each accompanied by heavy orders of wines such as the astonished keepers had never before witnessed;The eating and drinking went on for hours.Toward eleven o'clock,the keepers were mellow.Ten minutes later they were musical.At half past eleven the generous doctor arose,leaving his hat behind him,and moved unsteadly towards the wash room. One of the keepers should have accompanied him,but that seemed a bit discourteous and suspicious.It really was'nt the correct attitude toward so kindly a host.Besides the legs of the keeper were heavy,and their powers of locomotion uncertain.And, anyhow,Hadn't the doctor left his hat? A gentleman wouldn't go off without his beaver would he?

But that was just what the ungrateful GALLAUDET did.He strolled out into the fine autumnal night and kept on strolling.He was next discovered in Havana,whence he went back to his Native France with his family.The bibulous keepers,on the other hand,were dismissed the next morning by Judge Moggman,who had some prejudice against too much drinking by turnkeys.

My Note.

This was Rev.(I never knew he was a Physician before) Theodore Gallaudet.Born DDied. In later life.went about the countryside peddling Bibles.after the"carving knife" Episode.he went to live at New Fredoom,just over the Maryland line in the State of Pennsylvania.where he died and was buried.and where I saw the tombstone his daughte had erected to him.He had three children a son whose name I think was John.(who wa a first cousin of my grandmother Margaret Gallaudet 1834-1919.(wife of Robert Erwin and was the father of Rev.JohnvCalvin Gallaudet,a minister of the Episcopal Church whom I visited at Atlantic City in 1937.(whose son John Gallaudet is now a"Movie" Star) a daughter who married an Episcopalian Clergyman in the British West Indies. and another daughter Susan Gallaudet,who died at Baltimore in 1894,and is buried in the Mauseleum of her Grandfather.William Harrison Smith,at Rock Creek Cemetary at Washington.(It was this daughter who had the tombstone erected over his grave at New Freedom,Pennsylvania.which I visited in 1937)

He was not a native of France,as this episode (taken from a book called"You can Escape" by Edward H.Smith.The author is unknown to me,perhaps he is a descendent of William Harrison Smith Prrsident of the Bank of America.it may be his middle name is also"Harrison" the book was published in 1929 by Macmillan) states. November 7th, 1769 Petetion---Paul Gallaudet of New York, Periwig Maker, and Thomas Gallaudet, William Hazard, John Gallaudet Elisha Gallaudet, Joshua de St Croix, and Leah his wife (Born Leah Gallaudet) James Wilmont, relatives of the said Paul Gallaudet for the pardon of Paul Gallaudet indicated for perjury

November 14th, 1769, Letter of John Troup to Lieutenant-Govenor Colden, favorable to the Character of Paul Gallaudet.

Paul Gallaudet, was a Son of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, the "Emigree" Thomas Gallaudet (my Great-Great-Great Grandfather) was a Brother, so was Elisha Gallaudet, (Great-Great Grandfather of Annie Gallaudet Johnston, now of New Rochelle) Leah or Lea Gallaudet de St Croix was a Sister.

If James Wilmont(orWilmot) is put down as a Relative of Paul Gallaudet, and as all these people are relatives of the first Generation here, was not the wife of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet a Wilmont, or Wilmot,? we know her first name was Jane, now I have all the relatives of Paul Gallaudet, of the first Generation accounted for, and this James Wilmont, could only be, if he was not Paul Gallaudet's Uncle, (a Brother of his Mother) the husband, of a daughter of his Mother's Brother, in other words his first Cousin, (that is supposeing that we do not know the family name of Paul Gallaudet's Mother, the wife of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, The Emigree, from Mauze, then again, The Property of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, at New Rochelle, adjoined that of the Wilmont, Family, (now corrupted into Wilmot,) and the woods about where he lived, are called to this day, Gallaudet Woods, and Wilmot Woods, James Wilmont, was surely some relatives, as this record states, " relatives of the said Paul Gallaudet" Thomas Gallaudet, above, married Catherine Edgar of New Jersey there are no Wilmot Connections there, Elisha Gallaudet married Jeanne Du Bois, there are no Wilmont, connections there, Leah Gallaudet, married Joshua de St Croix, there are no Wilmot Connections there, (William Hazard, married some connection I forget whom now, but have it with my records) so that only leave James Wilmont, to be accounted for as a connection, or relative R.P.G.M.E.

Under Joseph Gallaudet Family (1763-1816) in the Rev. Horace Hayden's Account of the Gallaudets, the following is stated " The data of this family are derived from the Family Bible now own by Miss Emeline Gallaudet, (I have seen this Bible and it was printed only in 1801. so is NOT the original Bible of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, as has been stated) near New Rochelle, the old Graveyard near her home and the will of Anne Gallaudet, (that is Anne Badeau wife of Joseph Gallaudet. she was Born in 1770 and died in 1829, he was Born in 1763 and died in 1816, and was a Grandson of the " Emigree" Pierre Elisee, this will must be at White Plains) dated December 15th 1828, probated March 9th 1829 (Will Book L. 302) her will names all her children except the last two. (that would be William Paul Gallaudet, Born 1802 and Amelia Gallaudet Born 1806) names, and Elizabeth daughter of Jacob. Lobb. (I expect of New Rochelle)

Hester Gallaudet, Sister of Thomas Gallaudet(husband of Catherine Edgar) married Reuben Oliver, he had a Brother Joseph Oliver who settled with him in Delaware. their Father may have been a Joseph or Peter Oliver , who dissapeared from Mannikintown, Virgi -ia, about 1700.

"Daisy Farm" about four Miles North of New Rochelle, was the Property of Floyd Gallaudet (Born 1824. a third Cousin of my Grandmother, Margaret Gallaudet, 1834-1919. wife of Robert Erwin of Erwinton, Barnwell County, South Carolina) and also of his Father Peter Elisha Gallaudet, Born 1789, as this was only 69 years after his Grandfather Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, the first Gallaudet to settle at New Rochelle, in 1711. I think that undoubtedly this was at least a part of the land of the first Emigree, who was the Great-Great-Grandfather of my Grandmother Margaret Gallaudet Erwin. 1834-1919.

ELISHA GALLAUDET

"Born at New Rochelle, New York, about 1730, living in 1800. Elisha Gallaudet was the second son of Dr. Peter Gallaudet, one of the Hugenot settlers of New Rochelle, and in 1755 he was married to Jeanne DeBois of the same town as early as 1759 Gallaudet was in business in New York, as an engraver, as is shown in an advertisement in the New York Mercury of March 5th 1759, in this issue appears proposals for printing by subscription "Sis representations of Warriors who are in the service of their Majesties the King of Great Britain and the King of Prussia" designed after with a description as explained in the proposals, as taking prescriptions for these prints are Mr. Joseph Woodruff Timner, in Dock Street. Mr. Michael de Bruls, engraver at Mr. Furer, Silversmith, in French Church Street. Mr. Elisha Gallaudet (sic) engraver,South Street. The writer is unable to identify these six prints, but the issue of July 30th, 1759 of the same journal apologizes for the delay in their appearance and goes on to say that the editor of these prints is required by the urgency of the "Service" to be at his station at Fort Stanwix! The further statement is made however "that five of the above plates are finished and the sixth is actually engraving" from this it would appear that these portraits were actually produced in the Colony and possibly engraved by de Bruls or Gallaudet, or both. Besides some early bookplates the only known engraving by Elisha Gallaudet, is a portrait of the Rev. George Whitefield, issued as a frontispiece to the "Life of Whitefield" published by Hodge and Shoher, New York 1774. This plate is very poorly engraved and is evidently a copy from an old English print, in the list of subscribers to this book is the name of Elisha Gallaudet, Engraver, New York."

From "American Engravers on Copper and Steel, By David McNeely Stouffer. Published by the Grolier Club of the City of New York, 1907.

Elisha Gallaudet was a brother of my Great-Great-Great Grandfather, Thomas Gallaudet, who married Catherine Edgar.

Dear Mr Erwin-

No you owe me no apology. I will say though that your letter gave me quite a shock - as I have been told from a little child by my aunt Mary. My fathers sister - That we were decendent from a noble french family. Gallaudet - from the family use the english spelling - Now just where that started I do not know. I got interested in the family through the great love I bore my father. I lost him in my early childhood - My Grandfather Galladay took his inheritance from his father David - and came north - Settling in a farm East of Dayton Ohio - I spent much of my childhood in this home - where hung a very lovely oil painting of my G-G- Grandfather - in full Majors uniform - It is in the possession of a G-G- Granddaughter in Eaton Ohio - My Aunt would of willed me the painting - But I asked for some unday October 31st, 1937. Mr. Travis, now in his 80th year took e all over the land known as "Daisy Farm" and also over the lands djoining it, that were formally owned by a Mr. Carpenter, on this and, stood, when bought by the late Mr. Adrian Iselin about 1890 rom Mr. Carpenter, stood a very old stone house, quite a large tructure, and which Mr. Iselin wrote me he had torn down, this migh ave been a house erected by Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, when the land ormally belonged to him. (about 1732) before Mr. Carpenter bought t, there is no trace of it today, only some stones, and a hollow hich was once the Cellar. it stood near where the Resivoir is tod here was also another very small stone house. on top of the hill n land owned by Floyd Gallaudet (1824-1903) which Mr. Iselin also ad demolished, but this could hardly have been a dwelling house.

Catherine, daughter of George and Catherine Gallaudet, Baptized October 2nd, 1785, God-Parents Richard Benson, Margaret Freeman, Catherine Gallaudet.

(In the first record it is spelled Guillaudet, but this with out doubt intended to be " Gallaudet" and the miss-spelling came from the ignorance of the Clergyman, to know the exact spelling of the name, R.P.G.L.E., November 8th, 1937)

In 1722, the name of"Gallaudet" appears for the first time in the Local records of New Rochelle, in the sale of a parcel of land purchased by Cornelius Tienhoven from Daniel Bonnett, who owned considerable property in the vicinity of Pierre Elisee Gallaudet, and Nelke wife of Daniel Bonnett, according to the records the property was bounded on the North, by Dr. Gallaudet,

In 1727, Dr. Gallaudet, was chosen as Town Councilor with Isaac Guion, at the annual Town meeting held that year.

Dear Mr Erwin,

I am very sorry that the Post office at Tunbridge Wells has been so stupid and congratulate you on being so determined. An agency at King Charles Ridge could have obtained my address in a moment. Mr Grant Dick is a great friend of mine - I have, of course many friends in Tunbridge Wells & must daily receive letters & communications & some Post Office really is too stupid for words. As to the photo or portrait, I am sorry I know nothing about it, nor have I ever seen it. My Grandfather 1st Great-Grandfather, had as far as I know only 2 daughters - Mary Seymour who married Samuel Bissell and Pauline who married Charles Gostenhofer. I do not know who Anne Elizabeth is, whom you mention in your letter. The other particulars in fire of the members of our family are very interesting. As Mr. Loveland of Wilkes-Barre was executor for my uncle Paul Ambrose would he not know something about the portrait? I am very sorry I cannot help you. I have written to my only surviving brother to enquire but I doubt if he knows anything. I will write again if I hear anything but I have further delay I am writing now.

With kindly greetings. Yours very sincerely
Arthur H. Rivers

Dear Mr. Erwin:

I believe that I have finally secured my wife's descent from the Gallaudet line so hasten to send it to you.

Horace Bull Sloat and Elizabeth Gallaudet had four children, William Sloat, Josephine Sloat, Ferdinand Sloat, and another daughter. This last daughter married and went to Dakota to live. Josephine Sloat is buried in Mamaroneck.

William Sloat married and had; Delphine who married ----Taylor; Jesse who married ---- Insley and had a son Kenneth Insley; Charles who married Elizabeth ------ and had two sons, Wallace and Russell.

Ferdinand Sloat (my wife's grandfather) married Katherine Coglan and they had two children, Sarah Lucille, and Horace Martin (another daughter died in infancy). The latter died unmarried. Sarah Lucille Sloat, my wife's mother, married Robert Grinnell Glidden. Katherine Lucille Glidden (Kennedy) was the only child of this union.

Wallace Sloat, my wife's second cousin, lives at 316 Ackerman Ave. Hohokus, New Jersey. Perhaps he may have additional information. At any rate the above may help you to fill in the Sloat descendants of the Gallaudet family. (By the way, I suppose that you know the name Sloat was an attempt to anglacize the Dutch name Van Slotten.)

I have been disappointed though not surprised that Miss Delamar whose name you so kindly gave me, has not been able to help me with my Kennedy ancestry. However I am still hoping that someday I may succeed in digging it out.

I suppose that you have all of the Sherwood genealogy so will not repeat any of it except to say that you are correct in that I am descended from Thomas Sherwood I. My mother also traced her descent from Governor Welles, the Hollister family, the Buckingham family, and many of the other early settlers in New England. From the copious notes and memos which she left I am trying to construct a family tree in a form which will be more available for reference. As I am not familiar with genealogical methods of designation it presents quite a problem to identify the various ancestors and an even greater one when I try to include any of the collateral relationships.

How I wish I had had your opportunity of examining those old Kennedy records at Culzean Castle, and what a pity that they have never been published. On my last trip to Scotland I went there and also visited Bargany House and the ruins of old Castle Kennedy, both of which are not far away. During the war I had met Admiral Lord Hamilton in Boston when his ship, an aircraft carrier, put in there for repairs. He is the brother of the Earl of Stair and of the Master of Bargany House. The ruins of the old Castle Kennedy are on the estate of the Earl.

I am enclosing the snapshot which I promised to send you showing our home here in Maryland, and we do hope that sometime you will find an opportunity to pay us a visit here.

With all best wishes,

Always most sincerely,

Grafton S. Kennedy

Sorry! but my wife put the pictures away so carefully that we cant find them. When they turn up I will shoot you one.
